

JOIN AN INTERNATIONAL ERASMUS INTENSIVE COURSE AT JOANNEUM UNIVERSITY 11th-24th MARCH 2012 IN AUSTRIA

Interested in participating in an international intensive course of two weeks (6 credits)?

Join the course Developing Open Source System Expertise in Europe and enjoy while learning with 70 students from:

1. Metropolia University of Applied Sciences (Finland)
2. FH JOANNEUM University (Austria)
3. University of Alcalá (Spain)
4. Technical University of Košice (Slovakia)
5. Transport and telecommunication institute (Latvia)
6. University Joseph Fourier Grenoble (France)
7. Technical University of Denmark (Denmark)

All together in Austria at FH JOANNEUM University during two weeks (11th-24th March 2012) in intensive working days from 9:00 to 17:00.

Everything in English: working in small teams with students and teachers from 7 different European countries and developing projects related to open source software technologies.

You will earn 6 credits to be recognized at different courses of your degree:

- Sistemas Informáticos (4º Ingeniería en Informática)
- Desarrollo con Tecnologías Emergentes (3º Grado en Sistemas de Información)
- Or in other courses (to be confirmed) in degrees of Politécnico
- Or credits for final project in Master degrees
- Or free elective credits (approval pending)

Two teachers from UAH (Dept. C.Computación) are in charge:

Luis Fernandez Sanz y José Ramón Hilera González.

Interested students, once selected and admitted as part of the UAH team, must commit effective participation. Any student from the two schools of Politecnico can apply.

This is the third edition of this project funded by European Union. Find more than 500 photos of first edition in Finland and second edition in Spain, where 20 students of UAH participated (find group in Facebook: IP DOSSEE 2010):
