e-Discovery: detectives in the digital age

JOIN AN INTERNATIONAL ERASMUS INTENSIVE COURSE AT SALFORD UNIVERSITY 13th-24th FEBRUARY 2012 IN MANCHESTER (UK)

Interested in participating in an international intensive course of two weeks (6 credits)?

Join the course on e-Discovery and enjoy while learning with 70 students from:

1. Mid-Sweden University (Sweden)
2. University of Alcalá (Spain)
3. Hogeschool van Amsterdam (Netherlands)
4. University of Salford (UK)
5. University of Applied Sciences Bonn-Rhein-Sieg (Germany)
6. ESIEA - Ecole supérieure d'informatique, électronique et automatique (France)
7. University of Zagreb (Croatia)

All together in Manchester (UK) at Salford University during two weeks (13th-24th February 2012) in intensive working days from 9:00 to 17:00.

Everything in English: working in small multidisciplinary teams with students and teachers from 7 different European countries and developing projects related to electronic discovery.

You will earn 6 credits to be recognized at different courses of your degree:

- Sistemas Informáticos (4^o Ingeniería en Informática)
- Desarrollo con Tecnologías Emergentes (3^o Grado en Sistemas de Información)
- Or in other courses (to be confirmed) in degrees of Politécnico
- Or credits for final project in Master degrees
- Or free elective credits (approval pending)

Two teachers from UAH (Dept. C.Computación) are in charge:

Luis Fernandez Sanz y Luis de Marcos Ortega.

Interested students, once selected and admitted as part of the UAH team, must commit effective participation. Any student from the two schools of Politecnico can apply.

This is the second edition of this project funded by European Union. Find pictures of first edition in Amsterdam, where 11 students of UAH participated.
